Agenda item 58 (a)

Operational activities for development: operational activities for development of the United Nations system

Sudan:* draft resolution

Operational activities for development of the United Nations system

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 62/208 of 19 December 2007 on the triennial comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development of the United Nations system,

Reaffirming the importance of the comprehensive policy review of United Nations operational activities for development, through which the General Assembly establishes key system-wide policy orientations for development cooperation and country-level modalities of the United Nations system,

Recalling the role of the Economic and Social Council in providing coordination and guidance to the United Nations system to ensure that those policy orientations are implemented on a system-wide basis in accordance with General Assembly resolution 62/208,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on the comprehensive statistical analysis of the financing of operational activities for development of the United Nations system for 2007,[1] and notes the progress made in broadening and improving the reporting, in line with paragraph 28 of its resolution 62/208;

2. Also takes note of the report on the activities of the United Nations Development Fund for Women;[2]

* On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77 and China.
